2nd Annual Luau

What an extraordinary year it has been for our annual luau, and the success of this year's event has truly set a new standard of excellence! We owe a massive "mahalo" to our incredible dining staff, who worked tirelessly to create a feast that whisked us away to the islands with every bite. Their dedication to crafting mouthwatering dishes infused the event with a delicious authenticity that made the evening unforgettable. A heartfelt thank you also goes out to our admin staff, who orchestrated every detail seamlessly, ensuring that the luau flowed smoothly and was a source of pure enjoyment for all. To our cherished residents, your presence illuminated the event and turned it into a joyous celebration of community. We were honored to have the Fresno Polynesian group gracing us with their captivating performances, adding a genuine touch of Polynesian culture that elevated the luau to a whole new level. Here's to a night of shared laughter, enchanting dance, and lasting memories that we'll carry in our hearts until our next luau extravaganza!

Culinary Corner

Bob W.

Meet your neighbor Bob, the culinary adventurer who embarked on a flavorful journey after savoring a delectable salad in the charming streets of Florence, Italy.

Captivated by the vibrant blend of tastes and textures, he found his inspiration to create his own masterpiece. Infused with memories of that Tuscan delight, Bob's salad is a harmonious medley of flavors. A generous drizzle of fragrant pesto, slices of creamy avocado and a generous sprinkling of aged Manchego cheese, lending a rich and nutty note that transports him back to the sunlit cafés of Florence with every bite. In his kitchen,
