Farewell December, Hello New Year!

What a fun December it has been! We'd like to express our heartfelt gratitude to the Vineyards Choir for their invaluable assistance in spreading Christmas cheer. Thank you for being a part of all our large community events throughout December. Looking back at the month infused with the spirit of Christmas songs, there was no better way to conclude the year. This month is certainly one we'll cherish and mark in the books.

Living Nativity Scene

A heartfelt thank you to all the wonderful staff who dedicated their time and effort to bring the living nativity scene to life! Your commitment and enthusiasm truly made this special event a memorable experience for everyone. A special shout-out to Scott for his exceptional talent and dedication in building the entire set, turning his vision into a breathtaking reality. Your hard work and creativity have created a cherished first-time experience that will be remembered by our community for years to come. Thank you, each and every one of you, for contributing to the magic of the season!

Roasted Butternut Squash

INGREDIENTS:

3 lbs whole butternut squash, halved lengthwise and seeds removed

2 carrots, peeled and diced

1/4 cup olive oil (for roasting option)

2 tsp salt

1 tsp cracked black pepper to taste

1 large onion cut into wedges

6 cloves garlic, minced or grated

3-4 cups low sodium chicken stock (or broth) -- use veggie broth or stock for a vegetarian option

4. Flip the squash cut-side down and rub any of the oil/seasonings left on the pan over the skin.

5. Roast until squash is fork tender and completely cooked through (about 50-55 minutes).

6. Allow to cool slightly (about 10 minutes). When cool enough to touch, peel off the outside skin of the squash.

BLENDER: Place roasted veggies, 3 cups of stock and bouillon cubes into a blender. Blend until smooth. Transfer soup into a pot and warm over medium heat to serve.

2 beef or chicken bouillon cubes crumbled -- use vegetable stock powder for vegetarian option

1/2 cup half and half (or heavy cream)

INSTRUCTIONS:

1. Preheat the oven to 400°F. Lightly grease a large baking pan.

2. Place squash on the pan, cut side up. Arrange onion, garlic and carrots around the pan.

3. Drizzle ingredients with the oil and season with salt and pepper. Rub seasonings all over each veggie and inside the squash.

Happy 100 Birthday!

May this milestone be a celebration of a century filled with precious moments. Cheers to a remarkable century and to the continuing journey that lies ahead!
